PROGRAM CURRICULUM

 Duration: 5 Weeks (10 Sessions /1.5 Hours Each)

MODULE 1:

INTRODUCTION TO COUNSELLING

Counseling is a professional, collaborative process that aims to support individuals in understanding and resolving personal, emotional, psychological, or behavioral challenges. It creates a safe, confidential space where clients can explore their thoughts and feelings, develop coping strategies, and work toward positive change and mental well-being. Rooted in empathy, active listening, and non-judgment, counseling empowers individuals to make informed decisions, build resilience, and enhance their overall quality of life

MODULE 2:

UNDERSTANDING CASE HISTORY TAKING AND MENTAL STATUS EXAMINATION

Case history taking is a crucial step in the counseling process that involves gathering comprehensive information about a client's background, psychological state, personal history, and presenting concerns. This process helps counselors understand the client's experiences, behavioral patterns, and underlying issues, allowing for accurate assessment and effective intervention planning.

MODULE 3:

UNDERSTANDING MENTAL DISORDERS AND STRESS MANAGEMENT

Mental disorders, also known as mental illnesses or psychiatric disorders, are health conditions that affect a person's thinking, mood, behavior, and ability to function in daily life. They can range from mild to severe and may be temporary or chronic.

Stress management refers to a set of techniques and strategies used to cope with and reduce physical, emotional, and mental tension caused by challenging or demanding situations.

MODULE 4:

UNDERSTANDINGS, GENOGRAM, AND INITIATION OF SUPPORTING THERAPIES

Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) has a wide range of practical applications across mental health, physical health, and behavioral issues. Because it's structured, evidence-based, and goal-oriented, it's used in both clinical and everyday settings.

A genogram is a visual representation of a family tree that provides detailed information about relationships, family dynamics, and health or psychological patterns across generations.
